

South Carolina Health Disparities: Prevalence of Influenza Vaccine Age 65+

- Percentage of persons age 65 and older who received influenza vaccination has slightly increased in the past ten years.
- Blacks continue to have significantly smaller proportions of persons age 65 and older receiving influenza vaccination (Y2004 WM:BM Relative Ratio = 1.21; Y2004 WF:BF Relative Ratio = 1.20).